

DARKE SOIL & WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

June 4, 2018

Main Topics:

Educational Canoe Float – June 8th

- Partnership with Miami SWCD, Darke & Miami Co Parks, and City of Greenville
- We are back on Greenville Creek this year. We will depart from Alice Bish Park on Ohio St.
- Ask that registrants arrive no later than 8:45am to ensure we shove off by 9am
 - o Registration is a must, cost of $5.00 (includes lunch).
- Experience the beauty of Greenville Creek. If weather permits, we are planning on a fish shocking demonstration from ODNR-Division of Wildlife.
- Space is limited, we are very close to capacity for the trip.

Rain Barrel Decorating Contest

- Busy year for schools, we had 4 entries, from Greenville Art, Greenville FFA and Tri-Village Art
- Theme was “Classic Movie Posters”
- Hope to have this barrels out in the community to promote rain barrel use and it will be on display at the Great Darke Co Fair!
- Greenville Art to the top 2 spots with their entries, Jaws & ET won 1st, Rocky & Ghostbusters won 2nd, Little Shop of Horrors from Tri-Village finished 3rd. Voting was very close, great entries from our schools. We hope they enjoyed decorating these barrels because we really enjoy the contest.
- Pictures will be available on our website soon, www.darkeswcd.com

Food Plot Seed Available

- Seed supplied courtesy of Darke County Pheasants Forever
- Free to those interested, we just ask for a location & sketch of where the seed will be planted
- Available in ¼ ac, ½ ac and 1 ac amounts
- Winter Survival Mix. Mix of sorghum, millet, sunflower & buckwheat. Excellent blend of food and winter cover for pheasants & quail
