2021 Canoe Float on Friday, June 18th on the Stillwater River

GREENVILLE – Come out and enjoy a day on the Stillwater River on June 18, 2021. The Darke and Miami Soil and Water Conservation Districts, City of Greenville, along with the Park Districts of Darke and Miami Counties, are teaming up to provide an educational and fun trip covering a little over five miles of one of Ohio’s scenic rivers, the Stillwater River. This is a great way to understand the importance and beauty of our state’s rivers and streams. Reserve your canoe now for a day of sun, fun and an experience on the Stillwater River!

We are asking participants to arrive at Rangeline Access Entrance of the Stillwater Prairie Reserve located at 7790 North Rangeline Road, Covington, Ohio 45318 by 8:30 am for a brief safety talk, and life jacket and paddle sizing. The cost to participate is just $5.00 per person, which covers your lunch expense. This event is not recommended for those with health conditions.

Reserve your spot today by calling the Darke SWCD office at 937-548-1715, extension 3 or visit www.darkeswcd.com. Space is limited and registrations will be taken on a first come, first served basis. Your registration fee, $5.00, is required in advance to reserve your spot on the float. Don’t miss out on one of this summer’s finest, and cheapest, events on the Stillwater River.

Registrations will be accepted until June 11th or the trip is full, whichever happens first. For more information regarding the canoe float please contact Jared Coppess at jared.coppess@darkeswcd.com.
